

DRIVING ESSENTIALS

Watch your speed

A blurred background image of a car's instrument cluster, showing a speedometer with a needle pointing around 120 km/h and various warning lights illuminated in red.

Your driving pace defines your reaction time and vehicle control. Maintaining the right speed protects you and others in changing conditions.

STAY SHARP. STAY SAFE.